5. Best practices, innovation, and distinctiveness

Sr.no.	Activity	Distribution of scores	Total score
--------	----------	------------------------	-------------

1	Best practices 1: Our college has included traditional and folk arts in the curriculum 2: Under the Utkrisht Mahavidyalaya scheme of the Department of Higher Education our students go to different colleges and make wall paintings and sculptural murals there.	Outcome: The Kangra painting is one of the best miniature art forms in India. It is a part of our syllabus so that we can make a little contribution towards keeping our traditional art forms alive. In the same manner, folk songs are taught in the Department of Performing Arts. We also invite Himachali folk singers and miniature artists to give demonstrations. This has generated a sense of duty and understanding towards our cultural traditions in our students. This hands-on training has helped our students master their art and understand the process of making their artwork professionally viable. In addition, our students are helping other institutions beautify their campuses.	10 10	20
---	---	--	---------------------	----

2	Special initiative: Energy conservation	Solar lights are installed on the campus, 60 percent of the college is enabled to use natural sunlight and all lights inside the building are LED lights	4	20
	Solid waste segregation	The dry waste is segregated from the wet waste and disposed off separately.	0
	Rain harvesting system	The rain harvesting system is functional. We have a water tank of more than 10000 Litres. The water collected in the tank serves the sacred grove owned by the local community deity.	4
	Plastic free campus	We are a 100 percent polythene-free campus. We discourage the use of plastic and polythene, and even in our canteen, food is served in reusable plates.	4
	Blood Donation Camp	Since we shared the campus of RGGDC Chaura Maidan our students regularly donated blood in camps organized by them. This year we have shifted to our new campus and we are planning to organize blood donation camps in the near future.	4
	Adoptions of village/ Educational Institutions	The college has adopted village Loharab and four schools. This is helping all stakeholders in understanding the requirements of students.	4

3	Social impact of extension: Based on Community Feedback Activities: 1. Health camp organized for the local village community 2. Cleanliness drive in the surrounding area 3. Sensitizations of the local community through artworks	The college previously had its camp office on the premises of RGGDC Chaura Maidan as its building was under construction. Every year different clubs organize cleanliness drives in nearby areas such as The Glen and Chaura Maidan. Being a premier institute of Fine Arts, we used our capabilities to generate social awareness through artworks. The road safety club distributed pamphlets in the old bus stand and Chaura Maidan area to create awareness about safe driving and other general road safety instructions. The Red Ribbon Club also helped HPSACS many times to organize events by providing high-quality artworks to be displayed in Himachal and also at the national capital Delhi to raise awareness about AIDS and Drug Abuse.	2 5	07

4	Special new innovative initiatives or ideas adopted in the college: 1. Murals made with waste materials such as plastic bottles, caps, discarded wires, vinyl flooring, etc.	Swachhta pakhwada observed from 27-30 September 2024 in collaboration with the SJVN, our college organized an event. In this three-day workshop, our students decorated the college building walls with waste materials that, they collected from the surrounding areas. This was a beautiful way to clean up the nearby hills and create stunning artworks from waste materials. This is being appreciated by the students as well as the visitors that come to our college.	4	16
	2. Programme on mental health	Mental health has become a huge issue in modern-day stressful life. The students who are being highly affected by the transition period in their lives need this kind of activity. So, on 4th October 2024, a seminar was organized on issues related to mental health. It was also decided that a full-fledged program would be initiated that would provide students with online sessions with the psychologist according to the student's requirements. It has been running smoothly since then and many students have benefitted from this.	4
	2. Human Library		4
	3. MOU with Kanda Jail about an art workshop for jail inmates. MOU Inner Wheel Club to engage college students in social work	The college has been working on the idea of a human library. In this concept, the subjects (the inmates of Kanda jail) shared their life experiences, and this interaction with them will be recorded in the form of a book. Under the condition of this MOU, our students will be providing art classes to the inmates of Kanda jail so that they can pursue their hobbies and benefit from their rehabilitation when they are freed from their sentences. This will also help our students gather some teaching experience and also boost their confidence.	4

Our college can do tie-ups with folk and rural organizations like self-help groups and provide them with design and advertising knowledge regarding their products, This way we can make our students understand the market-oriented utilization of their talent and also help in the promotion of local culture and produce. There Is a need for more courses also such as interior and graphic design and printmaking etc. Set up a Digital Music Lab where students can explore electronic music production, sound engineering, and audio mixing.
